

Garrison and Washington Compared

By Granville Martin.
Editor of The Bee:
It is amusing, if not maddening to see Booker T. Washington advising the celebration of commemoration of the great William Lloyd Garrison. Following the thread of Mr. Washington's counsel, one would think him the last man on earth to so advise. But outside pressure from sources like the Niagara Movement, Boston Suffrage League and a score of many race journals has come so forcibly, till he has been little less than a self-contradiction. He has done some singular "stunts."

In The Guardian of Dec. 3, 1904, was printed the following: "The Boston Suffrage League held a lively and protracted meeting Tuesday night in the rooms of the Charles Sumner Republican Club at 634 Shawmut avenue, Rev. W. H. Scott of Woburn, vice-president, presided. W. M. Trotter was secretary of the meeting. A committee was appointed to secure data as to the school situation in the South, another to a memorial to Congress on the Crumpacker resolutions and another to take cognizance of the 100th birthday anniversary of William Lloyd Garrison, the abolitionist."

The above is a part of the notes of that evening.

Under section 1 of the by-laws of the Niagara Movement is the following: "The state committees shall arrange a memorial in honor of the friends of freedom in their respective states on Thanksgiving day in each year." There is the rub. Constitution and by-laws of the Movement all went before the country in the form of an address and was doubtless read by Mr. Washington in common with others. For him to counsel such a course after such recommendations to that effect had been crystallized looks like a bold-blunderous effort to forestall the provisions of the Niagara Movement or to pluck fortune from his direct opponents.

Why should Mr. Washington dare to commemorate this leader of leaders? In the life and lead of the two there never will be found the first jot of similarity. Garrison was a man of great spiritual morals, pointing heavenward all the time. The morals of Mr. Washington are grossly material, and point strictly to the earth.

One fought the southern whites; the other plays into their hands.

One used great plainness of speech the other is elusive and evasive.

The doctrine of one abolished or crippled one of the greatest sins; the doctrine of the other means to heal the wounds dealt sin by Garrison. There is nothing in common between them. They differ like chalk and cheese, like earth and heaven.

Let us turn on the light for a moment and see what resemblance, if any, there be between the two as leaders; one being for the race, the other of it. Washington: "Every revised constitution throughout the Southern States has put a premium upon intelligence, ownership of property, thrift and character." Enforcing serfdom and disfranchisement of his own people. Garrison: "I will not sustain the constitution, because it is a covenant with death and an agreement with hell." This man, till the constitution was amended or slavery abolished, refused to vote under it, lest he pollute himself; the other refuses to vote lest he pollute politics. Washington: "These are most truly free who have passed through the most discipline." Virtually condoning the lash, the rope, the torch, etc. Garrison: "I never degrade myself by debating the question—Is Slavery a Sin?"

Washington: "Black men must distinguish between the freedom that is forced and the freedom that is the result of struggle and self-sacrifice." Thus discounting our freedom vouchsafed us by shedding of blood in battle.

Garrison: "Wherever there is a human being, I see God-given rights inherent in that being, whatever the sex or complexion." Washington: "It was not so important whether the negro was in the inferior car as whether there was in that car a superior man not a beast." Here he excuses the humiliation to which the whole race is subjected throughout the South.

Garrison: "Where I see the holder of a slave I charge the sin upon him and denounce him."

Washington: "As is well known, I told that no people in the same economic and educational condition as the masses of the black people of the South should make politics a matter of the first importance." Here again he minimizes the most sacred of all rights to which we have any claim.

When Vardaman of Mississippi said that Booker had no more right to be allowed to vote than the little black coconut-head, Joe, who blacked his boots every morning, he said no more than Mr. Washington says for himself. It is his greatest amusement to boast before white audiences that he never cast a ballot in his life.

MODERN CONVERSATION.

A very able and instructive address was delivered by Lieut. Thos. H. R. Clarke, at the Lyceum of the Second Baptist Church, on last Sunday—subject "Modern Conversation"—Hon. Jno. P. Green presiding.

The president in a glowing introductory presented the speaker as a ripe scholar, and one representing all that is highest and best in our generation of young colored men and of American manhood. Owing to Mr. Clarke's broad learning and aesthetic training, he knew of no one more capable of discussing the subject than he.

Lieut. Clarke began his subject by laying down the proposition that a man is as he thinks and not as he does or says. This is why we so often make mistakes in our judgment or estimate of men, in trying to arrive at their true characters we judge them by what they do or say.

He thought there had been a decadence or ebb in conversational art. Two things are partly responsible for this—the spirit of haste, now invading our American colleges in trying to accomplish in two years what it has heretofore taken them four years to accomplish, and our cur-

Negro Ovation For Garrison

Colored Citizens Throng Faneuil Hall and Demonstration Recalls Great Meeting of January, 1863.

Once Immigration is Stopped, Says the Rev. Mr. Ransom, Result Will Come From Commingling of Blood.

Boston Herald, Dec. 12, 1905.

With a meeting of colored citizens of Greater Boston that rivaled in enthusiasm and surpasses in numbers the meeting which was held in January, 1863, when the emancipation proclamation was issued by President Lincoln, the celebration of the centennial anniversary of the birth of William Lloyd Garrison came to a close last night in Faneuil Hall. Long before the hour for the meeting to begin the hall was filled with a patient audience. The meetings of the forenoon and afternoon with their list of speakers and singers had drawn crowds; but it remained to the evening meeting to pack the hall to the doors, to crowd the aisles and to fill the galleries. Very few white people were in attendance.

From the moment in the morning when Mrs. Julia Ward Howe entered the hall and received an ovation, to the time when the centennial oration, delivered by the Rev. Reverdy C. Ransom Gould Shaw Veteran Association; the Peter Salem Garrison, Union Spanish War Veterans; the David Walker division 17 and E. N. Hallowell division 12, Knights of Pythias.

At eight o'clock the Rev. W. H. Scott opened the meeting. The Rev. Dr. Harvey of the Morning Star Baptist Church offered prayer and afterward made his speech of welcome.

Letters were read by W. M. Trotter from Maj. Wesley J. Furlong, Louis-A. Fisher, who sang at Mr. Garrison's funeral; S. M. Collins, G. B. Leverett, Maj. Charles P. Bowditch, U. S. A., A. E. Estabrook, the Wendell Phillips Club, Fanny Garrison Villard, Wendell Phillips Garrison, Joseph K. Hays, Jr., and Secretary Loch, replying to the invitation that was extended to President Roosevelt and regretting on behalf of the President that official business would make it impossible for him to attend.

Mme. Nellie Brown Mitchell sang Kipling's "Recessional" and responded to an encore and William Stanley Braithwaite read the Centennial ode which he had written for the occasion. Charles H. Taylor read the salutatory of the Liberator.

After Miss Genevieve Lee sang "Grass and Roses," Capt. Charles Mitchell, who worked as a compositor on the Liberator with Garrison, told his knowledge of the man.

Centennial Oration by the Rev. Reverdy C. Ransom.

The Rev. Reverdy C. Ransom then delivered the centennial oration.

He said in part: "There is but one direction in which the negro should steadfastly look and but one path in which he should firmly plant his feet—that is toward the realization of complete manhood and equality, and the full justice that belongs to an American citizen clothed with all of his constitutional powers."

"It is so marvelous as to be like a miracle of God, to behold the transformation that has taken place in the position of the negro in this land since William Lloyd Garrison first saw the light a century ago. When the negro had no voice, Garrison pleaded his cause; tonight the descendants of the slave stand in Faneuil Hall, while from ocean to ocean every foot of American soil is dedicated to freedom. The negro American has found voice."

John Hutchinson with his wife and son sang several songs of anti-slavery lays, and Mr. Hutchinson gave some war-time reminiscences. E. E. Brown spoke along the same line as Mr. Ransom.

William Lloyd Garrison, Jr., who was with his wife on the platform, was the last speaker and spoke briefly. He said he was doing the best thing he could to perpetuate the memory of his father, as he had given him the name William Lloyd Garrison of his year-old son. The great grandson of the William Lloyd Garrison of Boston.

HITS AT IMPERIALISM.
Need of Fresh Effort to Have Garrison's Ideas Prevail Asserted this Afternoon.

The afternoon session of the Garrison centennial celebration was well attended and the enthusiasm was great. While all the speakers paid tribute to Garrison and his great works, most of the took occasion to attack imperialism generally, and the sentiment of the meeting seemed to favor the raps at colonial policies. The need of present day Garrison was emphasized, the story of William Lloyd Garrison's life told over and over, each speaker trying to throw new light on the character of the man and his principles. Many colored men and women spoke.

After the invocation by the Rev. S. J. Comfort, Mark De Mortie, who acted as presiding officers at the emancipation proclamation meeting in Faneuil Hall in 1863, again took the duties of chairman of the meeting and delivered a short address.

Secretary William M. Trotter of the Suffrage League read letters of regret from William H. Dupree, the Rev. Francis H. Rowley, N. P. Hallowell and ex-Gov. Brackett.

The Rev. Charles G. Ames was the first speaker. He told the colored people there would be no help for them unless they helped themselves, practiced self-denial and made themselves solid against the injustice that was still their environment.

Rabbi Charles Fleischer followed. In the course of his address said:

"In participating in this centenary celebration of a man whom we all delight to honor, let me speak to a text furnished by Garrison himself: 'I claim to be a human rights man.' That was a sentiment to be expected from the universalistic seer, who, in frenzy exclaimed: 'My country is the world; my countrymen are all mankind.' Real superiority proves itself not in

HOWARD UNIVERSITY.

The situation at Howard University is unchanged. There are thousands of friends to the University who are anxious that Dr. John Gordon be retained. If his resignation is accepted, many declare, it will be an endorsement of the rebellious element in the University. It will mean that no man can come to the University and run it. It is now a question for the board of trustees to decide—whether the students are to run the University or the president. Dr. Gordon's side has not been told and when it is the situation will be changed.

rent newspapers. The commercial spirit which has taken hold of the people, is re-echoed through these newspapers and magazines until, in most cases, the people have gone commerce crazy, thus subordinating moral and aesthetic culture to financial gain, and, in most cases, to idle gossip and the latest scandal.

It is no wonder then that we find a decadence in the conversational art. As Dr. Samuel Johnson would say, "these are subjects of great deal of talk; but no conversation." Our present generation is composed largely of talkers.

The names of Sir Walter Raleigh, Dr. Samuel Johnson, Lord Bacon and Sir Richard Steele were mentioned as among the most fluent and brilliant of the old school of conversationalists, while among the newspaper men of modern times, of our own country, the names of the late Charles Dana, Horace Greeley, Theo. Tilton and F. Marion Crawford were given. There is not a paper now published in the United States which for purity of diction and aesthetic taste, equals those published by these gentlemen.

As a rule, people use as a subject for conversation about which they think most, the rich man thinks stocks, bonds and railroads; hence he talks stocks, bonds and railroads. And so of the social contingent.

Duty of Negro to Break down Social and Political Bar.

"It is the duty of every negro," said Mr. Ransom, "to break down all those social and political barriers which interfere with his development. It is the duty of the negro to be true to his country, but when his country becomes a land of oppression to him, it is his duty to strike down the enemy within as well as without."

"The negro—10,000 strong—now that he has been given freedom, will never be content to remain in a state of inferiority into which he has been plunged. CURIOUS LEGAL POINT.

Shall Cremated Corpses Pay Same Rate for Carriage as Body in Coffin?

Paris.—A curious case now before a French tribunal invokes a point which has not yet come up for legal settlement. A certain New York doctor, whose name thus far is withheld, recently accompanied a wealthy western American to Italy, where his patient after a lingering illness died.

In order to avoid the trouble and formalities of carrying the body to the United States in a coffin the doctor on his own authority had the corpse cremated. The ashes were placed in a small urn, which was then packed carefully and shipped as ordinary freight on which he paid the usual tariff according to weight.

The doctor landed on the American side all right, but the steamship company discovered his secret and demanded the price of carrying a dead body in a coffin, which amounts to nearly $150 more than the doctor paid for the urn's transportation. This he refused and the case must be decided at Paris, since it was at a French port that the urn was shipped. The impression here is that the company will lose the case.

TO DUPLICATE EVERY GUN.

Precaution That Is Deemed Necessary by the Naval General Board.

Washington.—Every gun in the navy has its duplicate to guard against any emergency and accident, if the recommendation of the naval chief of ordnance is carried out.

The naval general board, it is believed, thoroughly approves of it, and consequently the naval estimates to go before the next congress may contain a formidable item to cover the cost of producing the new guns.

Such accidents as have happened in recent years, particularly to the big target guns of the battleships, would compel the ship to go into action in disabled condition or be laid up for months in a navy yard. The idea is to keep spare guns in stock at convenient points to immediately replace the damaged ones.

Growth of Things Out West.

A correspondent of the Checotah (I. T.) Times, and for whose veracity that paper vouches, tells the following: "The terrible news comes from the western part of the Cherokee Nation that a boy climbed a cornstalk to see how the corn was getting along, and now the corn is growing up faster than the boy can climb down. The boy is clear out of sight. Three men have undertaken to cut the stalk down with axes and save the boy from starvation, but it grows so fast that they can't hack twice in the same place. The boy is living on nothing but raw corn and already has thrown down over four bushels of corn."

Decorated Chef.
King Edward's chef, M. Mesager, was among those to receive birthday honor on the occasion of his majesty's recent birthday. He is believed to be among the most accomplished chefs in the world. He was decorated with the Victoria medal. Other recipients of that distinction are understood to feel that in conferring the medal on a cook King Edward has rather cheapened the honor.

DR. GORDON.

Dr. John Gordon, President of Howard University, has tendered to the board of trustees, his resignation. The tendering of his resignation was the result of a revolt of the students and certain teachers against the authority of the president. The acceptance of his resignation will mean an endorsement of the violation of the rules of the University by a few students and teachers. Can the board of trustees encourage the unjust and unwarranted revolt of a few irresponsible students and teachers? If the resignation is accepted the doors of Howard University should be closed. No president, no authority vested in a president of an institution will amount to anything in the future. The moment that an attempt is made to enforce the rules and maintain good order among any class of students or in any institution and a spirit of resentment is allowed to triumph, what will become of the reigning power? It is the duty of the trustees of Howard University under the circumstances to inform Dr. Gordon that his resignation will not be accepted and the disorderly element at the University be disciplined. Dr. Gordon has done nothing more than to inaugurate certain necessary reforms. If he is right, which no one will deny, why then should he resign? The well-fare of Howard University is above a disorderly element in the University. If Dr. Gordon's resignation is accepted, the country will conclude that the walk-out of one hundred students was justifiable. Dr. Gordon's side has not been heard. Because a man is removed as a collector or agent for the University, is it just and proper that he should be encouraged in his attack upon the president of the University? The trustees should carefully look into all the circumstances of this recent uprising before Dr. Gordon's resignation is accepted. Our information is that a student in the University, we are concerned, we shall not be a nephew of one of the disturbing element, went from student to student and asked that a petition be signed against Dr. Gordon. Ought not the investigating committee summon each and every student before it and ask what he knows of the administration of Dr. Gordon and ascertain who presented the petition to him to sign?

It seems to us that this would be the right thing to do. Dr. Gordon has committed no offense. It is the disturbing element at the University that needs to be disciplined. Remove the disturbers and then there will be no more trouble at the University. There is a selfish and personal motive behind it all. Those who will attempt to destroy will not build up.

PECULIARITY OF THE NEGRO.

In a communication to The Bee this week, we are charged with inconsistency; in that some time ago we condemned a speech delivered by Mr. Justice Robert H. Terrell before the National Business League, held in the city of New York and now we defend him, when there is a possibility of his removal from office.

It is true, we did criticize the speech of Mr. Terrell and thought that he was unwise in attacking the servant class and other colored people in this city.

The same opinion we had then we have now. But, when a charge of dishonesty in business is made against him by virtue of his association or connection with the defunct Capital Savings Bank, we say that is wrong, and so far as we are concerned, we shall not be a party to it. We do say, perhaps there were some dishonest men connected with the Capital Savings Bank, who were benefited by its failure, but has it been shown that Mr. Terrell was in any way dishonest?

Some few days ago, or when it was published that Mr. Terrell's confirmation was held up by the senate, quite a number of colored lawyers regretted the incident and went so far as to send letters to the senate committee and when they were informed that Mr. Terrell had employed white counsel, they regretted their so-called manifest interest.

To some extent Mr. Terrell is right. It is his privilege to employ white counsel if he so desires and it is no one's business. Some negro lawyers are uncertain and to a great extent, they mistrust each other. It has been but a few weeks ago when a number of negro attorneys were seated in the Police Court and heard a white woman testify to a certain incident and when they were called upon to testify they declared they never heard it. This is the class of negro lawyers who are now opposed to Mr. Terrell because he employed white counsel. Then again, there are men behind this fight, well known to The Bee, who hope to be benefited if Mr. Terrell is defeated.

The Bee has nothing to say against Dr. J. N. Johnson, who filed the charges against Mr. Terrell. Dr. Johnson is a fearless race advocate. The Bee will not say that he is right or wrong, but The Bee will say that Mr. Terrell is not guilty of any wrong doings in connection with the Capital Savings Bank. The Bee has maintained from the very beginning that he was one among the few men who is not guilty of any wrong in connection with the defunct bank. If he is opposed because of his speech against the servant classes in this city, The Bee will be with the opposition. Because in that speech Mr. Terrell referred to a large number of worthy people. But this is not the secret of the opposition. It is personal and behind it is a motive that The Bee cannot endorse.

Why has the opposition waited so long? It had the same privilege to file these charges four years ago. In the opinion of the Bee there is only one mistake Mr. Terrell made and that was his New York speech. If the negroes believed that that speech is sufficient grounds for his removal for his connection with the Capital Savings Bank, why is it that these same negroes appeal to the commissioner to retain a man in office who has been tried and convicted of more serious offenses? The peculiarities of the negro are most remarkable and their inconsistencies are hard to understand.

DISPROVE IT.

There are certain ways to disprove crimes and alter offenses. One's conduct will often convict him of the offense charged against him. A gentleman is respected no matter where he goes. The white man claims that the negro is ignorant and impudent. That he doesn't appreciate what is done for him. Now to some extent this is true. But, it must be remembered that the colored people are not all alike and the white man knows it. There are appreciative colored people in the country who know their friends. The sensible white man will appreciate an industrious person, no matter what his color may be. The negro is the same in every state to some extent. The Southern colored man is leaving the farmers and rushing into the cities. This is wrong. The pulpit in this regard is not doing its duty. All the pulpit is thinking of today is graft. The negro minister is craving for money. He wants a big salary no matter how poor his congregation is. The negro must cease begging and going from door to door with hat in hand. He must show a more independent spirit. Now how is the colored man to disprove the charges against him? In this city it is gratifying to see the business enterprises that have been started by the colored people. They no longer depend upon drug stores that discriminate against them. They have their own ice cream parlors, restaurants, dining saloons, lawyers, doctors, builders and other necessities. They want their own theatres, which is necessary in an intelligent community. The second class theatres ("Jim Crow") the colored people will not have to tolerate when we can do for ourselves and will not have to be asking the white man to do for us. We shall then disprove the charges continually made against us. We have a class of colored people in this city who have been trying to get away from another class since Emancipation. No truer utterance was made than that of Attorney Grites B. Jackson in a recent speech before the local business league of this city when he said that the white people could not persuade the negro to get together so they forced them together by "Jim Crowism." And this is true, no matter how much one negro thinks that he is better than the other, all must ride together when they are "Jim Crowing." It let us do what is right and disprove the charge.

THE TEACHERS SALARY.

The action of the Board of Commissioners in recommending to Congress an increase in the teachers' pay is a commendable act. If there ever were public servants who deserve good pay and good treatment and financial consideration we are of the opinion that they are the teachers in the public schools. Year in and year out these faithful educators of the youth work incessantly. They are never paid what they deserve. The gentlemen from Vermont, Mr. Foster is of the opinion that colored educators should be subordinated and receive less pay for the same work. Our colored teachers are entitled to the same pay as the white teachers. The commissioners of the District will please accept the thanks of the teachers.

ALL BOSTON TURNS OUT.

The greatest and most imposing Garrison meeting held in the United States was held in Boston, Mass., December 10th, under the auspices of the Boston Suffrage League and the Niagara Movement. Editor W. M. Trotter of the Boston Guardian is entitled to much credit for the success of this monster meeting. All Boston responded to the call of the great New England editor. Elsewhere will be seen a report of the meetings as they were reported in the Boston Herald.

The Catholic Church has more power in this country and administration circles than all the other church denominations combined.

The Catholic Church is a power and when it speaks presidents obey. The Catholic Church is a power, because it is united. The members obey the rules of the church and are united as a people. The Catholic Church is a representative force.

The persecuted Jews of Russia command more consideration in the American body politic than the natural born American negro. The reason that the negro American politician is a failure, is because he is too busy attending to other people's business and not his own. He follows the shadow and doesn't seek the substance. He is influenced by sentiment and not reason and he exists on promises of political demagogues. To be a force he must seek the substance; be persuaded by reason and not promises and when it is to his best interest.

As a politician, the negro is a failure. He is a failure because there is no unity of interest and again he depends on the white man for official recognition. He has no representative force which will enable him to demand official consideration. He cannot support the Democrat party under existing conditions, because, had he embraced past political opportunities and not permitted himself to be isolated from those whom he considered to be his enemies, his condition today would be a force which would command respect.

He has allowed the pretended friends in the Republican party to use him to his detriment. There are republicans in office more inimical to his interest than the democrats. The white republican politicians have been dangerous instruments in the great body politic.

The colored politician is not wanted today. The present administration does not consult him and neither is he taken in the counsels of the party to discuss party measures. There is only one man consulted relative to the merits and demerits of the so-called representative negro. This man is so narrow that he disregards merit and selects men who do not represent the masses of the people, but only his pet theory—industrialism. When ten millions or more negroes are without a representative of their own choice, who is in touch with the administration, we believe the time has come for the negro politician to seek some other occupation. When such men as Lyons, Dancy, Pinchback and a few others must dance attendance to a self-constituted leader, who is no more than an apologist and timmer, The Bee thinks that the ten millions or more colored men in this country should migrate to a swamp and dip water from around weeds and bushes. The colored politician is afraid to go to the White House and state his grievances. Every nationality is wisely considered in every political equation, except the negro.

OUR CALENDAR.

The readers of The Bee will see a beautiful illustrated calendar for the year of 1906. It is the prettiest and most complete that has ever been published.

AN UNFAVORABLE IMPRESSION.

DR. C. B. PURVIS SPEAKS.

Boston, Mass., Dec. 19, 1905.
Mr. W. Calvin Chase: I have just read The Bee. Your Editorial of President Gordon and the University is strong and timely. You state the case correctly. A few selfish men destroy the institution, if by so doing their purposes would be conserved. The foolish students have been used as tools. They have succeeded in creating an unfavorable impression among the well disposed North end people.
Yours truly,
C. B. PURVIS

NEW SONG'S PRESENTATION.

The Vanderloot's "Just At the Break of Day" a Superb Composition.

Prior to the lecture by Mr. Collins, at the Pine Street Methodist Church, a trio composed of John Vanderloot and his sisters, Misses Sue and Roba, sang "Just at the Break of Day," at late publication by the Vanderloot Music Company, and doubtless one of the most expressive songs heard in this city in many years. Beside being a recital of an incident that appeals to sympathy, the author, Harry J. Lincoln, has caught the spirit of patriotic pathos that clings to the human heart and entwines itself in one's memory like the lingering echo of some sad, sweet story. And the rhythm, too, appealing to the ear like the melody of a cadence born of joy, leads one from pleasure to ecstatic bliss—and one wishes, when the song is done that it might go on forever.

It is of interest to know something of the history of the new song, a touch of which is given in a letter from Mr. Lincoln, the author, to the Vanderloot company, in which he says: "Gentlemen—I beg to acknowledge receipt of your check in full to date and for which please accept many thanks. It will no doubt interest you to know what others think of my latest effort—'Just at the Break of Day.' I was offered $2,500 for all my right, title and interest in the song, but flatly refused the offer. I consider it the best thing I have ever written and am confident that with your push and energy, it will become one of the greatest song hits of the year."

Commissioner West will not resign his post.

NEGRO OVATION FOR GARRISON.

hatred and contempt, in an ever-widening spiral of sympathy and love. The more one can include the more human one is. The grown-up man says naturally: 'I think nothing human foreign to me. Even the rights of Russia are dear to me, whose fellow-Jews are being treated atrociously by other Russians.'

B. R. Wilson gave his place on the program to Mrs. Fanny Garrison Villard of New York, the daughter of William Lloyd Garrison, who spoke briefly.

Moorefield Storey, president of the Anti-Imperialist League, delivered the next address and said in part: Reaction Against Garrison's Ideal, Says Moorefield Storey.

"This celebration comes at a fortunate hour. We are passing through a reaction against the great principles of freedom and equal rights to advance which Mr. Garrison devoted his life, and we need assured faith. We need to be reminded how much can be accomplished in a good cause by courage, persistence and unwavering devotion against odds which seem to be overwhelming—how how certain is the triumph of right."

"Our task as compared with Garrison's, is easy. We have seen slavery overthrown. We have learned that all the strong forces once enlisted in its support were unable to keep 4,000,000 of men as slaves. Can we believe for a moment that any force can keep 10,000,000 of freemen down in a country where everything that they see and everything that they hear strengthens the impulse to rise which is planted in the breast of every human being at his birth?"

"Who Would Be Free, Themselves Must Strike."

The Hon. A. E. Pillsbury, who followed Mr. Storey, said in part: "The work that Garrison began is not yet done. It must be done by agitation, with fire kindled at the same altar. It must be done by the black man himself. 'Who would be free, themselves must strike the blow.' If the colored race will stand together, sinking all jealousies and differences in a resolute and unceasing demand for the impartial enforcement of the laws, giving the country no rest until there is but one rule alike for white and black over every foot of soil, there can be no doubt of the result."

Miss Pauline Hopkins of North Cambridge, the only woman speaker, said it was the proudest moment of her life, the moment when she could stand upon the historic platform and speak in eulogy of a great benefactor of the human race. She proceeded:

"We call these men or women 'extraordinary mortals' because they possess in the highest degree that essence of the spirit of God that was breathed into Adam at creation. Such a man was the immortal William Lloyd Garrison."

"He was accused of the deadly sin of loving the blacks because they were black. This was not true. Mr. Garrison loved the unsullied honor of the Union, and desired the prosperity of the entire country."

Venerable John W. Hutchinson, Bar of Lynn, sings Old Song.

The Mendelssohn quartet sang "The Voice of Peace." The venerable John W. Hutchinson of Lynn then sang the old anti-slavery song, "Countrymen, Awake," while the collection was being taken.

In a fiery speech full of suggestions and inferences based on present day conditions, Edwin D. Meade, prayed for another Garrison. The Rev. A. A. Berle of Salem said he refused to consider a race of men as an issue, but as citizens. His plea for industrial freedom elicited great enthusiasm.

Ex-Representative William L. Reed followed.

Professor Albert B. Hart of Harvard University told of Garrison's power to penetrate the arguments of his opponents.

Henry B. Blackwell contributed personal reminiscences of Garrison which were keenly relished.

Warning Against Falling Into Tone of Self-Complacency.

E. H. Clement said he desired to put in a word of caution against falling into the tone of self-complacency over Garrison's vast achievement, as though it were something we had done or were emulating.

"My point is," he said, "that we have no business with the glory of William Lloyd Garrison today if we have none of his spirit."

George G. Bradford spoke of present day indication, in the form of action against "Jim Crow" sentiment and otherwise, that there are still men of Garrison ideas in our midst.

A letter from Walter Allen of Boston, who unable to address the meeting on account of ill health, was read.

DIRE DISASTERS PREDICTED.

Alleged Prophet Foresees Trouble Gloom for 1906.

An alleged prophet named Spangler furnishes the following prophecies for 1906:

The dissolution of Russia.
The overthrow of Turkey.
The assassination of the Czar of Russia.

The assassination of the Sultan of Turkey.

The prevention of three wars by President Roosevelt.

A protracted race war in the south. Destructive Spring floods in the United States.

A destructive eruption of Mount Vesuvius.

The activity of Mount Pelee and population.

Volcanic eruption in all parts of the world.

The eruption of many volcanoes now supposed to be extinct.

Great loss of life at sea by storms.

Destruction of two western cities by cyclones.

Earthquakes in all parts of the world. Destructive earthquakes in California and the Philippines.

Rebellion in Spain.

Spangler says further that the summer of 1906 will be hot and sultry throughout the temperate zone, with extensive death rate.

That Christ will make the spirit felt among the peoples of the United States and England, in which countries there are to be fervent religious and potent political movements which are to overcome in a great degree the present spirit of graft and commercialism.

That the United States will continue as a world power and the leader of other nations.

That Pennsylvania is to have an administration of the people and that discoveries of corruption will be made which will drive some of the guilty to suicide.

That God will wreak terrible vengeance upon the Russians for the massacre of the Jews.

JUSTICE TERRELL CONFIRMED.

The committee that had under consideration the charges filed against Justice R. H. Terrell, reported his name favorably to the senate last Tuesday afternoon and he was confirmed. The Bee had foreshadowed favorable action of the senate.

The Washington Post has become a fair paper on the race question since Hon. John R. McLean bought a controlling interest. This statesman from Cincinnati is one of the whitest men that ever lived, although a democrat.

FORD'S HAIR POMADE
Formerly known as "OZONIZED OX MARROW"
SO

STRAIGHTENERS
KINKY OR CURLY HAIR that is bent up in any style desired consistent with the length.
Ford's Hair Pomade was formerly known as "OZONIZED OX MARROW" and is the only safe preparation known to us that makes kinky or curly hair straight, as shown above. It is the most effective, reliable and easy to comb. These results may be obtained from one treatment. It is a perfect hair dressing for a man or woman. It removes and prevents dandruff, relieves itching, invigorates the scalp, stops the hair from falling out, breaks out, makes it grow and, by nourishing the roots, gives it new life and vigor. Being elegantly perfumed and harmless, it is a perfect hair dressing for ladies, gentlemen and children.
Ford's Hair Pomade "OZONIZED OX MARROW" has been made and sold for many years and is the most famous hair dressing in the world. It is put up only in 50 ct. size, and is made only in Chicago and by us. The genuine has the signature, Charles Ford, on each package. Beware all others. Full directions with every bottle. Price only 50 ct. Sold by druggists and dealers. Get your drug store or dealer can not supply you. Write for free trial bottle or 50 ct. bottle. Send 10 ct. for one bottle postage, or express paid. E. MURRAY'S CAFE.
One of the best known cafes in the city is managed by Mr. E. Murray, assisted by his most enterprising wife. His cream is always fresh and first-class. He has all flavors and all styles.

G. H. OYSTERS.
Are served by him in every style. While you are out for a walk drop in Murray's. If you want parties, balls, weddings and receptions served, call on E. Murray, 1216 You street, N. W. Wholesale and retail.

BASE BALL HOUSE.

1528 7th street, N. W.
The Base Ball House, 1528 7th street, is one of the most popular places of business in the city. There are places that claim to surpass this house for pure whiskey, but the consensus of opinion is among those who have good tastes that the BASE BALL HOUSE under the management of W. J. Donovan is unequalled. This house is known to have the purest and best whiskeys in the market. His excellent selections are made with care. The patron's health is more important than anything else, hence W. J. Donovan makes it a business to purchase the purest and the best wines and liquors the market affords.

HIS COLUMBIA CLUB.
Whiskey is a household article. The very name tells you that Donovan is the only man who handles the goods.

The Old Glory Cigars is something new. He has recently purchased several thousand of these cigars. He had them made especially for the trade. They are cigars that smoke appreciable and are equal to any cigar on the market. Smokers like a good cigar and this you can find at Donovan's.

Night Cap
The Baseball House.
THE COLUMBIA CLUB is especially distilled for this house. It is Donovan's own brand.

Now that we are on the threshold of another Christmas, is it not about time to make up your mind to buy for your loved ones? Some people wait until the last minute to buy their Christmas things. A bad plan. Not but that we can satisfy you, or rather that you can satisfy yourself here at any time. But 'tis better to come before the rush. The selection is easier and then the prices are no greater now. Jewelry of tasteful design is here in abundance.

My Christmas line this year embraces Diamond Rings, Diamond Brooches, Scarf Pins, Cuff Buttons, Ladies' Watch Chains, Necklaces, Pendants, Link Bracelets, Gold and Silver Watches, Fobs, Studs, Fountain Pens, Desk Sets, Collar Buttons, Desk Clocks, Shaving Sets, Mirrors,

Military Brushes, Hair Brushes, Clothes Brushes, Hat Brushes, Mirrors, Comb Brush and Mirror Sets, Ink Bottles, Powder Puffs and Cases, Jewel Cases, etc.

CUT GLASS
Is always appropriate at the Christmas season. There is something in its glitter and beauty and brightness which makes it appeal to those of refined tastes. There is a vast difference in Cut Glass qualities and patterns. I am showing only the kind you will be wise in buying. The right value is in each piece for the money you pay for it.

CATHOLIC GOODS.
The largest assortment in the city of High Grade Rosaries in Solid Gold, Solid Silver, Pearl, Amethyst, Crystal, Garnet, Emerald, Jade, Opal, Sapphire Turquoise, Jasper, etc.

PRAYER BOOKS.
The Handiest Line in the City.
Religious Medals in Gold and Silver. Immaculate Conception, St. Benedict, Infant of Prague, St. Joseph, St. Anthony, St. Aloysius, etc. Solid Gold Sacred Heart Medals in great variety.

DR. GORDON.

Dr. John Gordon, President of Howard University, has tendered to the board of trustees, his resignation. The tendering of his resignation was the result of a revolt of the students and certain teachers against the authority of the president. The acceptance of his resignation will mean an indorsement of the violation of the rules of the University by a few students and teachers. Can the board of trustees encourage the unjust and unwarranted revolt of a few irresponsible students and teachers? If the resignation is accepted the doors of Howard University should be closed. No president, no authority vested in a president of an institution will amount to anything in the future. The moment that an attempt is made to enforce the rules and maintain good order among any class of students or in any institution and a spirit of resentment is allowed to triumph, what will become of the reigning power? It is the duty of the trustees of Howard University under the circumstances to inform Dr. Gordon that his resignation will not be accepted and the disorderly element at the University be disciplined. Dr. Gordon has done nothing more than to inaugurate certain necessary reforms. If he is right, which no one will deny, why then should he resign? The well-fare of Howard University is above a disorderly element in the University. If Dr. Gordon's resignation is accepted, the country will conclude that the walk-out of one hundred students was justifiable. Dr. Gordon's side has not been heard. Because a man is removed as a collector or agent for the University, is it just and proper that he should be encouraged in his attack upon the president of the University? The trustees should carefully look into all the circumstances of this recent uprising before Dr. Gordon's resignation is accepted. Our information is that a student in the University, we are concerned, we shall not be a nephew of one of the disturbing element, went from student to student and asked that a petition be signed against Dr. Gordon. Ought not the investigating committee summon each and every student before it and ask what he knows of the administration of Dr. Gordon and ascertain what he presented the petition to him to sign?

It seems to us that this would be the right thing to do. Dr. Gordon has committed no offense. It is the disturbing element at the University that needs to be disciplined. Remove the disturbers and then there will be no more trouble at the University. There is a selfish and personal motive behind it all. Those who will attempt to destroy will not build up.

PECULIARITY OF THE NEGRO.

In a communication to the Bee this week, we are charged with inconsistency; in that some time ago we condemned a speech delivered by Mr. Justice Robert H. Terrell before the National Business League, held in the city of New York and now we defend him, when there is a possibility of his removal from office.

It is true, we did criticize the speech of Mr. Terrell and thought that he was unwise in attacking the servant class and other colored people in this city.

The same opinion we had then we have now. But, when a charge of dishonesty in business is made against him by virtue of his association or connection with the defunct Capital Savings Bank, we say that is wrong, and so far as we are concerned, we shall not be a party to it. We do say, perhaps there were some dishonest men connected with the Capital Savings Bank, who were benefitted by its failure, but has it been shown that Mr. Terrell was in any way dishonest?

Some few days ago, or when it was published that Mr. Terrell's confirmation was held up by the senate, quite a number of colored lawyers regretted the incident and went so far as to send letters to the senate committee and when they were informed that Mr. Terrell had employed white counsel, they regretted their so-called manifest interest.

To some extent Mr. Terrell is right. It is his privilege to employ white counsel if he so desires and it is no one's business. Some negro lawyers are uncertain and to a great extent, they mistrust each other. It has been but a few weeks ago when a number of negro attorneys were seated in the Police Court and heard a white woman testify to a certain incident and when they were called upon to testify they declared they never heard it. This is the class of negro lawyers who are now opposed to Mr. Terrell because he employed white counsel. Then again, there are men behind this fight, well known to The Bee, who hope to be benefitted if Mr. Terrell is defeated.

The Bee has nothing to say against Dr. J. N. Johnson, who filed the charges against Mr. Terrell. Dr. Johnson is a fearless race advocate. The Bee will not say that he is right or wrong, but The Bee will say that Mr. Terrell is not guilty of any wrong doings in connection with the Capital Savings Bank. The Bee has maintained from the very beginning that he was one among the few men who is not guilty of any wrong in connection with the defunct bank. If he is opposed because of his speech against the servant classes in this city, The Bee will be with the opposition, because in that speech Mr. Terrell reflected on a large number of worthy people. But this is not the secret of the opposition. It is personal and behind it is a motive that The Bee cannot endorse.

Why has the opposition waited so long? It had the same privilege to file these charges four years ago. In the opinion of the Bee there is only one mistake Mr. Terrell made and that was his New York speech. If the negroes believed that that speech is sufficient grounds for his removal for his connection with the Capital Savings Bank, why is it that these same negroes appeal to the commissioner to retain a man in office who has been tried and convicted of more serious offenses? The peculiarities of the negro are most remarkable and their inconsistencies are hard to understand.

DISPROVE IT.

There are certain ways to disprove crimes and alter offenses. One's conduct will often convict him of the offense charged against him. A gentleman is respected no matter where he goes. The white man claims that the negro is ignorant and impudent. That he doesn't appreciate what is done for him. Now to some extent this is true. But, it must be remembered that the colored people are not all alike and the white man knows it. There are appreciative colored people in the country who know their friends. The sensible white man will appreciate an industrious person, no matter what his color may be. The negro is the same in every state to some extent. The Southern colored man is leaving the farmers and rushing into the cities. This is wrong. The pulpit in this regard is not doing its duty. All the pulpits are thinking of today is graft. The negro minister is craving for money. He wants a big salary no matter how poor his congregation is. The negro must cease begging and going from door to door with hat in hand. He must show a more independent spirit. Now how is the colored man to disprove the charges against him? In this city it is gratifying to see the business enterprises that have been started by the colored people. They no longer depend upon drug stores that discriminate against them. They have their own ice cream parlors, restaurants, dining saloons, lawyers, doctors, builders and other necessities. They want their own theatres, which is necessary in an intelligent community. The second class theatres ("Jim Crow") the colored people will not have to tolerate when we can do for ourselves and will not have to be asking the white man to do for us. We shall then disprove the charges continually made against us. We have a class of colored people in this city who have been trying to get away from another class since Emancipation. No truer utterance was made than that of Attorney Grites B. Jackson in a recent speech before the local business league of this city when he said that the white people could not persuade the negro to get together so they forced them together by "Jim Crowism." And this is true, no matter how much one negro thinks that he is better than the other, all must ride together when they are "Jim Crowing" it. Let us do what is right and disprove the charge.

THE TEACHERS SALARY.

The action of the Board of Commissioners in recommending to Congress an increase in the teachers' pay is a commendable act. If there ever were public servants who deserve good pay and good treatment and financial consideration we are of the opinion that they are the teachers in the public schools. Year in and year out these faithful educators of the youth work incessantly. They are never paid what they deserve. The gentlemen from Vermont, Mr. Foster is of the opinion that colored educators should be subordinated and receive less pay for the same work. Our colored teachers are entitled to the same pay as the white teachers. The commissioners of the District will please accept the thanks of the teachers.

ALL BOSTON TURNS OUT.

The greatest and most imposing Garrison meeting held in the United States was held in Boston, Mass., December 10th, under the auspices of the Boston Suffrage League and the Niagara Movement. Editor W. M. Trotter of the Boston Guardian is entitled to much credit for the success of this monster meeting. All Boston responded to the call of the great New England editor. Elsewhere will be seen a report of the meetings as they were reported in the Boston Herald.

The Catholic Church has more power in this country and administration circles than all the other church denominations combined.

The Catholic Church is a power and when it speaks presidents obey. The Catholic Church is a power, because it is united. The members obey the rules of the church and are united as a people. The Catholic Church is a representative force. The persecuted Jews of Russia command more consideration in the American body politic than the natural born American negro. The reason that the negro American politician is a failure, is because he is too busy attending to other people's business and not his own. He follows the shadow and doesn't seek the substance. He is influenced by sentiment and not reason and he exists on promises of political demagogues. To be a force he must seek the substance; be persuaded by reason and not promises and when it is to his best interest.

As a politician, the negro is a failure. He is a failure because there is no unity of interest and again he depends on the white man for official recognition. He has no representative force which will enable him to demand official consideration. He cannot support the Democrat party under existing conditions, because, had he embraced past political opportunities and not permitted himself to be isolated from those whom he considered to be his enemies, his condition today would be a force which would command respect.

He has allowed the pretended friends in the Republican party to use him to his detriment. There are republicans in office more inimical to his interest than the democrats. The white republican politicians have been dangerous instruments in the great body politic.

The colored politician is not wanted today. The present administration does not consult him and neither is he taken in the counsels of the party to discuss party measures. There is only one man consulted relative to the merits and demerits of the so-called representative negro. This man is so narrow that he disregards merit and selects men who do not represent the masses of the people, but, only his pet theory—industrialism. When ten millions or more negroes are without a representative of their own choice, who is in touch with the administration, we believe the time has come for the negro politician to seek some other occupation. When such men as Lyons, Dancy, Pinchback and a few others must dance attendance to a self-constituted leader, who is no more than an apologist and timmer, The Bee thinks that the ten millions or more colored men in this country should migrate to a swamp and dip water from around weeds and bushes. The colored politician is afraid to go to the White House and state his grievances. Every nationality is wisely considered in every political equation, except the negro.

OUR CALENDAR.

The readers of The Bee will see a beautiful illustrated calendar for the year of 1906. It is the prettiest and most complete that has ever been published.

AN UNFAVORABLE IMPRESSION.

DR. C. B. PURVIS SPEAKS.

Boston, Mass., Dec. 19, 1905.
Mr. W. Calvin Chase: I have just read The Bee. Your Editorial on President Gordon and the University is strong and timely. You state the case correctly. A few selfish men destroy the institution, if by so doing their purposes would be conserved. The foolish students have been used as tools. They have succeeded in creating an unfavorable impression among the well disposed Northern people. You are truly,
C. B. PURVIS.

NEW SONG'S PRESENTATION.

The Vandersloot's "Just At the Break of Day" a Superb Composition.

Prior to the lecture by Mr. Collins, at the Pine Street Methodist Church, a trio composed of John Vandersloot and his sisters, Misses Sue and Roba, sang "Just at the Break of Day," at late publication by the Vandersloot Music company, and doubtless one of the most expressive songs heard in this city in many years. Beside being a recital of an incident that appeals to sympathy, the author, Harry J. Lincoln, has caught the spirit of patriotic pathos that clings to the human heart and entwines itself in one's memory like the lingering echo of some sad, sweet story. And the rhythm, too, appealing to the ear like the melody of a cadence horn of joy, leads one from pleasure to ecstatic bliss—and one wishes, when the song is done that it might go on forever.

It is of interest to know something of the history of the new song, a touch of which is given in a letter from Mr. Lincoln, the author, to the Vandersloot company, in which he says: "Gentlemen—I beg to acknowledge receipt of your check in full to date and for which please accept many thanks. It will no doubt interest you to know what others think of my latest effort—'Just at the Break of Day.' I was offered $2,500 for all my rights, title and interest in the song, but flatly refused the offer. I consider it the best thing I have ever written and am confident that with your push and energy, it will become one of the greatest song hits of the year."

Commissioner West will not resign his post.

NEGRO OVATION FOR GARRISON.

hatred and contempt, in an ever-widening spiral of sympathy and love. The more one can include the more human one is. The grown-up man says naturally: I think nothing human foreign to me. Even the rights of Russia are dear to me, whose fellow-Jews are being treated atrociously by other Russians.

B. R. Wilson gave his place on the program to Mrs. Fanny Garrison Villard of New York, the daughter of William Lloyd Garrison, who spoke briefly.

Moorehead Storey, president of the Anti-Imperialist League, delivered the next address and said in part: "Reaction Against Garrison's Ideal, Says Moorehead Storey."

"This celebration comes at a fortunate hour. We are passing through a reaction against the great principles of freedom and equal rights to advance which Mr. Garrison devoted his life, and we need assured faith. We need to be reminded how much can be accomplished in a good cause by courage, persistence and unwavering devotion against odds which seem to be overwhelming—how how certain is the triumph of right."

"Our task as compared with Garrison's, is easy. We have seen slavery overturned. We have learned that all the strong forces once enlisted in its support were unable to keep 4,000,000 of men as slaves. Can we believe for a moment that any force can keep 10,000,000 of freemen down in a country where everything that they see and everything that they hear strengthens the impulse to rise which is planted in the breast of every human being at his birth?"

"Who Would Be Free, Themselves Must Strike."

The Hon. A. E. Pillsbury, who followed Mr. Storey, said in part:

"The work that Garrison began is not yet done. It must be done by agitation, with fire kindled at the same altar. It must be done by the black man himself. Who would be free, themselves must strike the blow. If the colored race will stand together, sinking all jealousies and differences in a resolute and unceasing demand for the impartial enforcement of the laws, giving the country no rest until there is but one rule alike for white and black over every foot of soil, there can be no doubt of the result."

Miss Pauline Hopkins of North Cambridge, the only woman speaker, said it was the proudest moment of her life, the moment when she could stand upon the historic platform and speak in eulogy of a great benefactor of the human race. She proceeded:

"We call these men or women 'extraordinary mortals' because they possess in the highest degree that essence of the spirit of God that was breathed into Adam at creation. Such a man was the immortal William Lloyd Garrison."

"He was accused of the deadly sin of loving the blacks because they were black. This was not true. Mr. Garrison loved the unsullied honor of the Union, and desired the prosperity of the entire country."

Venerable John W. Hutchinson, Bar of Lynn, sang Old Song.

The Mendelssohn quartette sang "The Voice of Peace." The venerable John W. Hutchinson of Lynn then sang the old anti-slavery song, "Countrymen, Awake," while the collection was being taken.

In a fiery speech full of suggestions and inferences based on present day conditions, Edwin D. Meade, prayed for another Garrison. The Rev. A. A. Berle of Salem said he refused to consider a race of men as an issue, but as citizens. His plea for industrial freedom elicited great enthusiasm.

Ex-Representative William L. Reed followed.

Professor Albert B. Hart of Harvard University told of Garrison's power to penetrate the arguments of his opponents.

Henry B. Blackwell contributed personal reminiscences of Garrison which were keenly relished.

Warning Against Falling Into Tone of Self-Complacency.

E. H. Clement said he desired to put in a word of caution against falling into the tone of self-complacency over Garrison's vast achievement, as though it were something we had done or were emulating.

"My point is," he said, "that we have no business with the glory of William Lloyd Garrison today if we have none of his spirit."

George G. Bradford spoke of present day indication, in the form of action against "Jim Crow" sentiment and otherwise, that there are still men of Garrison ideas in our midst.

A letter from Walter Allen of Boston, who unable to address the meeting on account of ill health, was read.

DIRE DISASTERS PREDICTED. Alleged Prophet Foresees Trouble Galore for 1906.

An alleged prophet named Spangler furnishes the following prophecies for 1906:

The dissolution of Russia.
The overthrow of Turkey.
The assassination of the Czar of Russia.

The assassination of the Sultan of Turkey.

The prevention of three wars by President Roosevelt.

A protracted race war in the south. Destructive Spring floods in the United States.

A destructive eruption of Mount Vesuvius.

The activity of Mount Pelee and popocatepetl.

Volcanic eruption in all parts of the world.

The eruption of many volcanos now supposed to be extinct.

Great loss of life at sea by storms.

Destruction of two western cities by cyclones.

Earthquakes in all parts of the world. Destructive earthquakes in California and the Philippines.

Rebellion in Spain.

Spangler says further that the summer of 1906 will be hot and sultry throughout the temperate zone, with extensive death rate.

That Christ will make the spirit felt among the peoples of the United States and England, in which countries there are to be fervent religious and potent political movements which are to overcome in a great degree the present spirit of graft and commercialism.

That the United States will continue as a world power and the leader of other nations.

That Pennsylvania is to have an administration of the people and that discoveries of corruption will be made which will drive some of the guilty to suicide.

That God will wreak terrible vengeance upon the Russians for the massacre of the Jews.

JUSTICE TERRELL CONFIRMED.

The committee that had under consideration the charges filed against Justice R. H. Terrell, reported his name favorably to the senate last Tuesday afternoon and he was confirmed. The Bee had foreshadowed favorable action of the senate.

The Washington Post has become a fair paper on the race question since Hon. John R. McLean bought a controlling interest. This statesman from Cincinnati is one of the whitest men that ever lived, although a democrat.

BASE BALL HOUSE.

1528 7th street, N. W.
The Base Ball House, 1528 7th street, is one of the most popular places of business in the city. There are places that claim to surpass this house for pure whiskey, but the consensus of opinion is among those who have good tastes that the BASE BALL HOUSE under the management of W. J. Donovan is unequalled. This house is known to have the purest and best whiskeys in the market. His excellent selections are made with care. The patron's health is more important than anything else, hence W. J. Donovan makes it a business to purchase the purest and the best wines and liquors the market affords.

HIS COLUMBIA CLUB.

Whiskey is a household article. The very name tells you that Donovan is the only man who handles the goods.

The Old Glory Cigars is something new. He has recently purchased several thousand of these cigars. He had them made especially for the trade. They are cigars that smoke appreciable and are equal to any cigar on the market. Smokers like a good cigar and this you can find at Donovan's.

Night-Cap

The Baseball House. THE COLUMBIA CLUB is especially distilled for this house. It is Donovan's own brand. 1528 Seventh street, N. W.

WASHINGTON, D. C.

Now that we are on the threshold of another Christmas, is it not about time to make up your mind to buy for your loved ones? Some people wait until the last minute to buy their Christmas things. A bad plan: Not but that we can satisfy you, or rather that you can satisfy yourself here at any time. But 'tis better to come before the rush. The selection is easier and then the prices are no greater now. Jewelry of tasteful design is here in abundance.

My Christmas line this year embraces Diamond Rings, Diamond Brooches, Scarf Pins, Cuff Buttons, Ladies' Watch Chains, Necklaces, Pendants, Link Bracelets, Gold and Silver Watches, Fobs, Studs, Fountain Pens, Desk Sets, Collar Buttons, Desk Clocks, Shaving Sets, Mirrors,

Military Brushes, Hair Brushes, Clothes Brushes, Hat Brushes, Mirrors, Comb, Brush and Mirror Sets, Ink Bottles, Powder Puffs and Cases, Jewel Cases, etc.

CUT GLASS

Is always appropriate at the Christmas season. There is something in its glitter and beauty and brightness which makes it appeal to those of refined tastes. There is a vast difference in Cut Glass qualities and patterns. I am showing only the kind you will be wise in buying. The right value is in each piece for the money you pay for it.

CATHOLIC GOODS.

The largest assortment in the city of High Grade Rosaries in Solid Gold, Solid Silver, Pearl, Amethyst, Crystal, Garnet, Emerald, Jade, Opal, Sapphire, Turquoise, Jasper, etc.

PRAYER BOOKS.

The Handsomest Line in the City. Religious Medals in Gold and Silver: Immaculate Conception, St. Benedict, Infant of Prague, St. Joseph, St. Anthony, St. Aloysius, etc. Solid Gold Sacred Heart Medals in great variety.

SILVER.

Tea Sets, Coffee Sets, Water Sets. Chafing Dishes, Pudding Dishes. Soup Tureens, Butter Dishes, Tea Spoons, Table Spoons, Sugar Shells, Fish Sets, Carving Sets, Oyster Forks. Orange Spoons, Sardine Forks, Tomato Servers, Berry Sets, Gravy Ladles, Souvenir Spoons, Chocolate Spoons, Cut Bowls, Etc., Etc.

"DEN" DECORATIONS.

Imported Metlach and Munich Steins, Brownies, Clocks, Etc. Novelties in Umbrellas, Gold, Silver, and French Grey. Rich Designs.

CLOCKS.

Brass Clocks, Porcelain Clocks, Enamelled Clocks, Gilt Clocks, Alarm Clocks. Each style will make an appropriate Christmas present. Don't be misled by the "fake" discounts offered you by the Instalment Jewelry Houses. The prices of these places are fully 50 per cent. higher than the legitimate jeweler. They advertise a discount of 25 per cent. and yet with the fake discount offered you their prices are 25 per cent. higher than you would buy the same goods in a legitimate store. Goods laid by for the Holidays. Come now and avoid the rush.

Respectfully yours,
E. VOIGHT.
